

When your whole world is falling apart...

When you feel as if life has dealt you a bad hand, and your world is falling apart.

That the enemy Satan seems to attack, with every piercing dart.

Nothing will change; it is as if God will not come to the rescue.

You cry out to God take me out I'm over I'm through.

Pain attacks as Satan's hand weighs heavy and long.

When will God answer your prayers, I can't go on forever, I'm just not that strong.

Even for the prophet Daniel it took twenty one days of fasting and prayer for God to hear.

I know you are tired of life but the gates of heaven draw near.

God will answer your prayer right in the nick of time.

God hears you, Jesus loves you, so don't think your sins are the crime.

Just remember Jesus died, he died for you.

God can never forget because His love is true.

Hang in there be strong, remember, Jesus never wanted to drink the Father's cup.

Soon we will all see Jesus, at the great table we will sup.

Jesus with outstretched hand he cries many tears.

He knows all the hardships and times death drew near.

Jesus cares He is praying for you as well.

God knows how much you suffer, and the times you fell.

I know it seems hard and that you can't go on.

I tell you the truth God loves you and hope is not gone.

I am sorry you suffer now, I know life seems an impossibility.

Just remember Jesus holds the lock and key to eternity.

Written by: Dale Lee Gordon May 17, 2015 www.coloryourworldwithlove.com